Short Stories by Jesus

The renowned biblical scholar, author of The Misunderstood Jew, and general editor for The Jewish Annotated New Testament interweaves history and spiritual analysis to explore Jesus' most popular teaching parables, exposing their misinterpretations and making them lively and relevant for modern readers. Jesus was a skilled storyteller and perceptive teacher who used parables from everyday life to effectively convey his message and meaning. Life in first-century Palestine was very different from our world today, and many traditional interpretations of Jesus' stories ignore this disparity and have often allowed anti-Semitism and misogyny to color their perspectives. In this wise, entertaining, and educational book, Amy-Jill Levine offers a fresh, timely reinterpretation of Jesus' narratives. In Short Stories by Jesus, she analyzes these "problems with parables," taking readers back in time to understand how their original Jewish audience understood them. Levine reveals the parables' connections to first-century economic and agricultural life, social customs and morality, Jewish scriptures and Roman culture. With this revitalized understanding, she interprets these moving stories for the contemporary reader, showing how the parables are not just about Jesus, but are also about us—and when read rightly, still challenge and provoke us two thousand years later.

Jesus Short Stories

Jesus Short Stories is my own effort to shed light on Jesus's parables. As someone who is a regular churchgoer and has spent countless hours studying the Bible, particularly the words of Jesus, it has always perplexed me that seldom do you ever find anyone trying to uncover the hidden meaning behind Jesus's parables. If you spend time reading the gospels, that is exactly what happened in Jesus's time as well. A few years ago, I began seeing Jesus's parables in a new light. First and foremost, these Jesus Short Stories are Christian fiction. I want to stress that they are indeed fiction. However, they are presented in a way that will help the reader to also gain insight on the hidden nature of Jesus's parables. Throughout this book, there is one rule that I have regarding the words of Jesus...under no circumstances ever, do I put words in the mouth of Jesus. But that said, I have found clever ways of shedding light on the hidden mysteries. On a side note, the very first short story is my sincerest effort to reconstruct the lost gospel.

8 Short Stories of The Divine Mercy, are personal stories written by Mark Endres. Most of the stories have been published by the Marians of the Immaculate Conception at Marian.org. These stories are simple reminders of God's faithfulness to those who seek His guidance in everyday life. From "More Than a Hill of Beans" to "Touched by an Angel" to "Divine Mercy - Grace By Fire," Mark shares his stories and journey to promote the Divine Mercy of Jesus through prayer, words and works. Having witnessed the Divine Mercy image of Jesus on a crucifix while praying the Divine Mercy chaplet, Mark recounts his confirmation from God that He truly answers our prayers. He asks us all to promote the Divine Mercy image and devotion to family and strangers alike. As Jesus said to Saint Faustina: "I desire that the image be publicly honored." (Diary, 414) "My daughter, do whatever is within your power to spread devotion to My mercy. I will make up for what you lack. Tell aching mankind to snuggle close to My merciful Heart, and I will fill it with peace (Diary, 1074)." Mark lives in Madison, WI. He has been interviewed by Thom Price of EWTN radio regarding Divine Mercy bumper stickers. Mark's short stories have also appeared in the Madison Catholic Herald and The La Crosse Catholic Times. Mark has also been a EWTN Media Missionary. His Divine Mercy bumper stickers are sold in bookstores including The National Shrine of Our Lady of Good Help. 8 Short Stories of The Divine Mercy

Book of Short Stories presents a collection of short stories that have been written over a twenty-five-year period. Some were used as closing thoughts given to the boys of several Boy Scout troops at the end of meetings, when author Alexander C. Parker served as both an assistant scoutmaster and as scoutmaster. These stories show how God can and does work in the lives of people through the leading of the Holy Spirit and how it is possible to find new direction in your life by letting God and the Holy Spirit speak to you. It is hoped that by reading each story and letting the theme of that story remain with you, that it will help in providing a "new" and "stronger" positive outlook and make you the reader more confident in your walk of life. There is a very clear message on Salvation and several opportunities to accept Jesus Christ as your Personal Lord and Savior. Parker is also the author of Jesus of the Future; both books seek to lead readers to understand God more clearly.

Book of Short Stories

You may think of martyrs as those who gave their lives for the faith in the early church. But today, Christians around the world continue to stand boldly for Christ despite ongoing persecution. These are their stories. · Pastor Han--Stabbed to death by North Korean agents for sharing the gospel with North Koreans in China · Jean-Pierre Werner and Rodé Groenewald--Killed in a Taliban attack on their home in Afghanistan · Fatima Al-Mutairi--Killed by her brother after becoming a Christian in Saudi Arabia · Habila--Survived being shot in the face by Boko Haram militants after refusing to renounce Christ Persecution has always accompanied followers of Jesus, who invited His followers to come and die. Some were jeered at, and their backs were cut open with whips. Others were chained in prisons. Some died by stoning, some were sawed in half, and others were killed with the sword. Some went about wearing skins of sheep and goats, destitute and oppressed and mistreated. They were too good for this world, wandering over deserts and mountains, hiding in caves and holes in the ground. --Hebrews 11:36-38 Faithful Christians around the world are still suffering and dying for the name of Christ. Their stories inspire and encourage each of us to follow Christ, no matter the cost.

Seek and Find: Old Testament Bible Stories

A thought-provoking question grew into an inspiring short story: What would Jesus have to say if he walked into a church today? Although this short story is fiction, the questions it poses are decidedly relevant. Would Jesus be able to re-connect with people? Would he be old school or refurbish a contemporary Christianity? Would he get along with the priests? The Second Coming of Jesus Christ is an inspirational story that plays in a contemporary setting. It shall not just inspire, but also entertain. Religion should be fun and it doesn't hurt if it's a bit hip. Even religion deserves some marketing. That's why Jesus roamed around Israel and spread the good news. And he offered mind-blowing give-aways to support his campaign: he healed sick people, resurrected deceased, and turned water into wine. But that's a long time ago, his legacy has withered and much of his memorandum was lost in translation. This short story presents alternative interpretations of the Bible and Christianity. Reader discretion is advised.

The Second Coming of Jesus Christ

It is wonderful to read and tell, even for persons with a limited vocabulary.

The Story Of Jesus

I was born in former Communist Bulgaria, behind the iron curtain. During my childhood years, I lived with my family under Communist oppression. Then during the 1960s, I prayed to God for five years to help me to leave the country. When I was twenty-three, God heard me and opened the door of opportunity. I passed the border like a suitcase and was able to escape on the Orient Express train to Trieste, Italy. After six months, I moved to America, and I lived for eight years in Flushing, New York. Then I got married and moved to Austin, Texas. After the Lord's help and protection over my life, I still didn't see His mercy and unconditional love. I simply lived by the rules of this dark world, and I had not heard about the gospel of Lord Jesus Christ. Hosea 4:6. One day I opened my heart and accepted Jesus as my Lord and Savior, and I repented of my sins. Romans 10:9. He made me a new creation, and I became a child of the Most High. II Corinthians 5:17. Only Jesus can bring harmony of mind, soul, and body. With God's Timing Is Perfect, I hope many readers, after reading the nine true stories, will see throughout my life how God showed me only by faith in Jesus, that all things are possible. Nothing is impossible with God, who can move mountains. Matthew 17:20. I wrote my sixth book for the glory of the Lord. In each story, I wrote about God's mercy, loving kindness, and patience in my life. I had a life full of turmoil and struggles. My marriage is still improving. I wish things would go my way, but God's will and His timing are the best. God is never late and always on time! His timing is perfect! My legacy is to continue to write and glorify the living God!
