Understanding the Plan of REDEMPTION

In the realm of time, life is very short. Time goes by quickly. In a moment of time, one can die and this life is over, but what happens after this? There are many views throughout the history of mankind. Starting at an early age, these views are shaped by what is taught from parents, school, religious upbringing, and experience. All impact what we believe. But what is the truth about death? Is there a heaven or hell? Did Jesus really have to die for the sins of mankind? Does everyone go to heaven? Are you going to heaven? Or, rather, is everyone hell-bound from natural birth? This book will take you on a journey through the infallible Word of God to unveil God's plan of redemption and answer these questions.

The answers may even surprise you. This book is a love story, a love story of God for His creation, mankind. It is a love story of God and you. God has always wanted a family. He has always wanted you in His eternal family. The plan of redemption is a love story of how God restored His family, mankind, to Him. The plan of redemption is a wonderful and amazing act of God's love and grace for mankind, a revelation of God's nature, which is LOVE. Understanding the plan of redemption will provide a better comprehension of God and His unconditional love for you. It will forever change your life. This book reveals the intricate details of what God planned and went through to save and preserve mankind from eternal damnation, and what God went through for you personally. He did it all for you. So enjoy reading about this love story, and receive its benefits and know how you can have peace now and after death because of God's plan of redemption.

The Nature of God's Divine Redemption

The book was born out of a desire to lift your spirit. As we look around us today, we see a lot of pain and sorrow and misery. The concept of "The Nature of God's Divine Redemption" is a deliberate intention to encourage you and to lift your hope, to put your mind on something better and a superior way. The book tells you, "If the son of man set you free, you are free indeed" (John 8: 36, King James Bible). That is what "The Nature of God's Redemption" is about. We are told that whatsoever a man thinks in his heart so is he. The idea behind the book is to help you to think good thoughts and to lift your minds from horizontal things to vertical things. God's love is the most amazing thing. The book tells that faith is also amazing. "It takes far more faith to believe in the intellectually chic and fashionable evolutionary myth than it does to believe in the existence of God." Moreover, it says, "Evolution is based entirely on faith because no facts or proof have ever been found to support it!" Faith does play a primary role in the life of a Christian. For the person who truly wants to seek God and learn to please Him, Hebrews 11:6 tells us that: "But without faith it is impossible to please God: for him that cometh to God must believe that He is and that He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him" Faith is vital to a Christian. In fact, without it, no one can please God. Notice this verse says that those seeking God "must believe that He is." Also the book articulates that "a deep belief in God, who 'rewards' all who 'diligently seek Him, requires proof of His existence." It says it is "After proof has been established, then—and only then can one have faith—absolute confidence that what man does is being recorded in God's mind, to be remembered when he receives his reward." If you are uncertain that God exists because proof of that existence has not been firmly established, then, under fire, your faith will wane or disappear. But when you truly believe in what Jesus Christ did on the Cross of Calvary, God's Divine love will redeem you and set you free from the heavy load of sin.

What Happens After Death?

Is death the end of human existence and consciousness, or do we continue in some other place or state of being? Do we go to a place of everlasting reward or eternal torment? Are we destined to be reincarnated, coming to life again in a different body in a seemingly endless cycle of living and dying? Will we ever see deceased loved ones again? Is there somewhere you can go to find the answers to these questions? The Bible tells us exactly what happens after death. It tells us what happens to those who have done right (will they go to heaven?) and wrong (or be tormented in an ever-burning hell?) and reveals the fate of the billions of people who have never known God and His way of life. Most churches claim to teach what the Bible says—but what does it really reveal? You need to discover the answers yourself inside this Bible Study aid, What Happens After Death?. You'll be shocked when you find out what the Bible really teaches! "Many people, however, believe in a perpetual, ever-burning hellfire or a condition of spiritual torment in which evil people are tortured throughout eternity. But the Bible's simple teaching conveys nothing like this." "Understanding the meaning of life, death and what follows this physical life can give priceless comfort and hope in the face of death. It should also have a great impact on the kind of person you are, motivating you to live carefully and make wise choices."

Redemption

What should a loving husband do? His precious wife was masterfully manipulated into believing a lie. She has been deceived and has sealed her fate: she is going to die. Should he just stand aside and let her die, or will one self-sacrificing action on his part actually set in motion her salvation? He is, after all, created in God's own image. The question is: What would Jesus do, faced with this dilemma? This book reveals that the Garden of Eden held good news for mankind. Adam did not disappoint God with his choice. The Bible declares that God had a plan for salvation from before the foundation of the world. Salvation through a Roman cross and an empty tomb was never God's "Plan B" for mankind. The gospel of redemption has been God's only plan since the beginning of time. In our current day, this truth about redemption has been blurred. This book restores the clarity of God's plan for making salvation available for all mankind. One plan, one purpose, from beginning to end.

The Gospel in the Garden

If I were to ask you about the history of redemption, you would most likely begin by thinking back to the cross and what was accomplished there by Christ. From there, you would then move forward. However, in God's mind or from His perspective it began before the foundation of the world. Ephesians 1:4 says, "...even as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and blameless before him in love..." Before Genesis 1, God had the plan of redemption already formulated. This means that God planned this in eternity past. Before "in the beginning," God existed and planned our redemption. So when God was all that there was, the history of redemption began. That may be hard for us to fathom because we cannot think in terms of eternity. Unlike God, we are constrained by time. The fact remains that God planned our redemption through His Son Jesus Christ before the world was even created. It was not a second option; it was the original plan from the start. We may not understand it all, but we can gain glimpses of it throughout the revealed Word of God, which is itself a "story of redemption that spans from creation to re-creation" (i.e., Genesis 1-2 to Revelation 21-22). Some of you may already be jumping ahead of me and asking, "Why would God create the world if He knew that one day He would have to redeem it? Could He not foresee what would go wrong and prevent that from happening so that creation would remain 'good' and not need to be redeemed?" Those questions are very important. In our study of the history of redemption, these questions will only be dealt with briefly, and they will have to wait until later. There is no need to get ahead of ourselves just yet. But to satisfy the question for the time being, I will give you the main reason, which will be the only reason addressed in this particular study, that God chose to create a world that He knew would fall into sin and need to be redeemed from it. It is for His glory, and I hope as we progress in our study that you will see how that statement is definitely true. The study of the history of redemption has interested me for a long time now. I have preached on the subject as an overview and taught on it in detail. But I wanted more. I wanted to go even more in depth on this subject, and that is what I intend to do here. Before we begin, I want to explain what we will be doing. We are not going to cover every aspect of redemption in Scripture, because that would cover the whole Bible. For instance, the Book of Hosea is full of rich illustrations of redemption, but we will not cover it in this study. So this is not an all-inclusive look at redemption; it is a study of the highlights. It would take a volume much larger than this, probably multiple volumes, to truly give the history of redemption the study it deserves. We will start with the creation account. Since God's plan came to fruition before the foundation of the world, then it makes sense that we start at the creation event in our study of the history of redemption. We will end with Christ, who is the completion of God's plan for redemption. I hope you enjoy this study, and I pray that God uses it to draw you closer to Him.

The History of Redemption

This book is about God's plan for humanity and the way of redemption for all of mankind. Jesus Christ is the ""Plan of the Father"" on how we can escape the wrath of God and the fury of darkness. For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God. Believe or nor, you and me are sinners and we have to accept the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, who is the propitiation for our sins. All these are in the book and the contents of it. In a nut shell, the book is about God, Jesus Christ and Humanity, showing us how we can escape the fury of Satan as to his tricks in luring us to hell as we ignorantly take his course against the will of God. God has planned victory for us in Christ Jesus and whoever wants it, can have God's in His Son. The salvation and redemption of God is in Jesus Christ as God had openly declared: ""God so loved the world of humanity, that He gave His One and Only Son, that whoever believe in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life.""

God's Plan for Mankind

The pernicious teaching of evolution in our schools and colleges, and the higher criticism of our modern pulpits, are responsible for the fatal drift from the avowed faith of our forefathers. This alarming condition calls for new methods of presentation of the truths of God's Written Word. Experience has demonstrated the wisdom of teaching the fundamentals from the biological standpoint, thereby counteracting in a logical, convincing manner the destructive work of infidel teachers, and saving the young from their subtle snares. The desirability of presenting these vital truths in a comprehensive manner, with due regard to the unity and correlation of subjects, has also been considered in the preparation of this course of Bible Study; but the treatment of the various subjects does not claim to be exhaustive. Further study of each subject will repay the Bible student and is strongly advised. Suggestions in reference to such study will be found throughout this course. It will be observed throughout these studies, that Eternal Life is presented from the biological standpoint instead of the etymological. While the best authorities agree that aionios may be used with reference to the past as well as to the future, yet this word does not clearly reveal the nature of the Life that is bestowed at the instant of regeneration. The term Uncreated Life actually defines the Life of God in Christ Jesus, that is shared by the believer. A careful reading of John 1:1 and 1 John 1:1-2 corroborates this statement by declaring Eternal Life to be the Uncreated Word who was with God the Father, and who was God.

God's Plan of Redemption

The Bible contains a sweeping story, but it's all too easy to lose sight of the forest for the trees. Whether it's the dimensions of Noah's ark or the regulations for sacrifices in the temple, sometimes we miss the big picture when sifting through all the important details contained in Scripture. Helping readers discover the overarching narrative that binds the Bible together, this book highlights 16 key verses that stand as "turning points" in the biblical story line, enabling us to see God's incredible plan to redeem his people from Genesis to Revelation. Whether it's the creation of humanity, the establishment of the covenants, or the coming of the Messiah, this book will help Christians see how God's Word tells a single story about his sovereignty, glory, and grace.

The Whole Story of the Bible in 16 Verses

The book was born out of a desire to lift your spirit. As we look around us today, we see a lot of pain and sorrow and misery. when you truly believe in what Jesus Christ did on the Cross of Calvary, God's Divine love will redeem you and set you free from the heavy load of sin.

The Nature of God's Divine Redemption

"Why God Created Mankind" was inspired by the author's studying and understanding of the Bible. This leads to learning that "God is too loving to be unkind." One scripture states, "Broad is the way that leads to destruction and many there will be that. Go in there at, and narrow is the way that leads to life eternal and there will be few that find it." The author felt if God knows all things, why would he create mankind, knowing the majority would be lost? He personally believes that it was unkind, unless he had a superior plan for man. With a lifetime of gathering information of God's love and kindness for redemption, he has concluded that this book is a reflection of God's plan for mankind. When you read this book, it is so important to grasp the depth of it. You need to reach down in your spirit and soul to understand that your spirit will live on forever. Reach deeper than just the surface. All of my scripture references are taken from the King James Version of the Bible.

Why God Created Man

From Condemnation to Redemption was imagined one beautiful morning while sharing the Word on Periscope TV. The Holy Spirit quickened me to put some of the things I was sharing in writing. Right after the end of the Bible study on this day, my son called me and said, "Mom, I hope you are putting this in writing." The Holy Spirit immediately gave me the title of the book. Jesus Christ came to redeem us from condemnation to redemption. We were condemned when we fell short of God's glory due to sin. But "God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son, that whosoever believes in him will not perish but have eternal life" (John 3:16). This book reveals the plan of God for humanity as said in Genesis 1:26. Man fell short of that plan due to sin. Jesus came to redeem man from sin and put us back into the right place with God""the place of dominion, authority, and righteousness.

From Condemnation to Redemption

Mankind has always been searching for truth and the purpose of why we were created to be born at certain moments and time in history. However, most of us go through life never finding complete fulfillment to the question, "What is my true identity, and why was I created now?" The Spirit of Wisdom was released "in the beginning" by anointing Moses to write Genesis through Deuteronomy. She gave voice to the patriarchs and prophets with types and shadows of the ways of God throughout the Old Testament. She opened the eyes of the disciples to know God as Father in the New Testament. She gave heavenly understanding to earthly application to Paul. With this journey through the Scriptures the revelation of Christ in you, the hope of glory, was also declared for you to reign as sons and daughters of the Most High God in the earth. Your journey to find your life's purpose while still living on earth begins with knowing the Creator as Father through Jesus Christ, then allowing His Spirit to guide you into ALL truth He created just for YOU, that only you can fulfill. When you change your perception, you will change your life's journey. Are you ready to enter into your inheritance as you come before the throne room of God?

The Deplorable State of Man, and His Redemption by Jesus Christ. Extracted from a Late Author. Second Edition, Enlarged

According to researcher George Barna, most born-again Christians live indistinctly from non-believers because they do not think any differently--which is a result of not understanding the basic truths of the Christian faith. In this book, Barna identifies seven core questions that Christians must be able to answer biblically in order to live a transformed life.

The Fall and Redemption of Man and the Will of God

The unparalleled and incomprehensible love of God to sinful man, displayed in the wonderful affair of his redemption and salvation, is the great thing celebrated throughout the Scriptures. This work is found in the covenant between the Father and the Son, called in theology, "The Covenant of Redemption." Willard clearly and biblically explains the Covenant of Redemption dividing the entire treatise into two general heads in order to explain the glorious mystery of this covenant. 1) The provision which God made for our deliverance before time in eternity, and 2) The things which are done in time for its actual accomplishment. From these two main points he covers a right understanding of what a covenant is, how the covenant is found clearly in Scripture, how this covenant was necessary in relationship to man's salvation, and lastly, what the influence is which the covenant of redemption has to the covenant of grace, which is made with us. His final two chapters cover application by way of exhortation and consolation. This work is not a scan or facsimile, has been carefully transcribed by hand being made easy to read in modern English, and has an active table of contents for electronic versions.

Redemption

God and Man Reconciled is the story of God's love for mankind contained in the Bible. It reviews his dealing with mankind and his work of redemption and reconciliation. It is both a narrative and guide book for reference and consultation to help keep one on course while studying the Word of God. It is simply the story of the Bible to help maintain the perspective from Genesis to Revelation. The redemption of the human race is the theme that runs through the Bible. It is the story of God's love for man shown by his generous gifts and the acts he has performed to accomplish that goal. Through faith in Jesus of Nazareth, God offers pardon from sin and reinstatement and fellowship with him reconciliation. "

Man, Sin, and Redemption

If we are to understand the purpose and meaning of human life, we must go to the Bible. The purpose and meaning of human life is found in the Bible, and the first great point in the Bible is creation. Thus, our consideration of the Scriptures must begin with God's creation. God created man as a vessel to contain Him. However, in the Garden of Eden, God's enemy Satan came in and caused man to fall.

He usurped and corrupted man. But eventually the Lord Jesus came—God became a man! He lived a human life and went to the cross to die. Through His death, He redeemed man and dealt with all the negative things in the universe, and then He resurrected and brought us into resurrection. “Through Christ’s redemption God was able to achieve the purpose for which He had created man; namely, He was able to put Himself in Christ into us and then bring us back to Himself.”

The Redemption of God

God's Redemptive Plan was written to educate both young adults and inexperienced Christians on what God did to redeem fallen man and allow for a restoration of fellowship. More experienced Christians and those who are further along in their spiritual journey will probably find this book educational as well. Why? Because it simplifies the redemption story by describing who did what, when they did it, where it was done, and why it was done. The Bible is loaded with many historical events, promises, prophecies (fulfilled and to be fulfilled), miracles, and judgments. God's Redemptive Plan links together many of the more well-known events in the Bible-like the fall of man in the Garden of Eden, the flood in the days of Noah, the Tower of Babel, God's call of Abram, the nation of Israel, the promise land, the birth and death of Christ on the cross, and the Church just to name a few, as well as a few of the lesser-known events-like Daniel's 70 weeks, the Times of the Gentiles, the Rapture, the Antichrist, and the Tribulation Period-into one focused theme ... Redemption! You will see that these events, promises, and prophecies are not random, singular acts, but are connected events which reveal the plan God ordained to redeem man from his fallen state and restore him to fellowship through Jesus Christ. It is a fascinating, compelling story of redemption for the ages ... literally ... from the time before man was created through the end times.

The Covenant of Redemption

Is God changeable? Does He have different gospels for different people? The story of redemption takes you behind the scenes in the struggle between God and Satan. It explains how the conflict began, what the issues are, and how the outcome is already assured. It traces the theme of God's relationship with man from the garden of Eden to the return of Christ and beyond.

God and Man Reconciled

The Scriptures teach clearly that God desires to live in intimate fellowship and communion with mankind. He wants us to enjoy His love, peace, joy, and companionship and to rest in His redemption, experiencing the perfect harmony and contentment and fulfillment of purpose for which He created us. God's original purpose for creating mankind was simply for us to enjoy relationship with Him, the kind of fellowship that the first couple, Adam and Eve, enjoyed in the Garden of Eden, when God walked with them in the cool of the evening (Gen. 3:8). Then, sin entered the human experience and separated all mankind from that divine fellowship. But when we place our faith in Christ's sacrifice for our sin, we are redeemed by the blood of Christ and justified in the sight of God. But that is not the end of the matter; it is only the beginning. God's intention is that we be completely restored—spirit, soul, and body—to the divine rest found in His redemption, He wants us to experience that mystery of intimate communion with our Creator/Redeemer. In this book we will discuss four important aspects of fulfilling the deepest desire of the human heart—to know God personally and intimately in the way God's great, loving heart intended. To know the love of God that brings true heart contentment, we need to walk in the understanding of these divine principles: The biblical basis for all prayer is resting in His redemption. The biblical basis for all Christian living is resting in His redemption. The biblical basis for total forgiveness is resting in His redemption. The biblical basis for divine contentment is resting in His redemption. Your life can be transformed when you allow Him to make them a reality to your heart. The love of God can fill your heart and make you a victorious lover of the Christ. You will be ruined for any lesser, temporal pleasure or love once you taste more deeply the wonders of resting in His redemption.

God's Creation, Man's Fall, and the Lord's Redemption

This interdisciplinary study follows an international and ecumenical meeting of twenty-one scholars held in New York at Easter 2003: the Redemption Summit. After an opening chapter, which explores seven central questions for writers on redemption, five chapters are dedicated to the scriptural roots of the doctrine. A section on the patristic and medieval periods then examines the interpretation of redemption through the centuries. The volume moves on to foundational and systematic issues: the problem of horrendous evil, karma and grace, and differing views on justification. Studies on the redemption in literature, art, music, and preaching form the final part. There is a fruitful dialogue between experts in a wide range of areas and the international reputation of the participants reflects and guarantees the high quality of this joint work. The result is a well researched, skilfully argued, and, at times, provocative volume on the central Christian belief: the redemption of human beings through Jesus Christ.

The Universal Redemption of Mankind

God's Grand Design By: William R. Arnold, Edited by Ms. Aurora Payad-Arnold God's Grand Design is to restore mankind to its original state of sacred perfection after Adam and Eve fell and created the original sin of disobedience, hiding, and lying to the Lord. When God cursed the serpent for tempting Adam and Eve to be like God, he promised to send his only begotten Son to save humanity. He did via the incarnate word in the womb of the immaculately conceived Virgin Mary. God wants to be man and receive a new body to defeat death through Jesus Christ. Man wants to become God to receive eternal life. Man's journey to become God starts from being an ignorant baby gaining knowledge, to a cowardly teenager obtaining courage, to an adult converting greed to generosity, to a wise man changing selfishness to unselfishness, and at last, to a free man able to think for himself in eternal service to God in his kingdom. The journey requires him to know right from wrong, good from evil, and God's will from man's will and thus defeat evil, worldly temptations, and demonic possession. Through Christ, God and man are destined to become one through three advents, making the God/Man Christ into the new human spirit (blessings). Then, the Man/God Jesus becomes the new human flesh to make all things perfect in the sight of God. Jesus Christ came as a priest on a donkey to decode the Torah, bring knowledge, and remove blindness to defeat sin. By his death and resurrection, he granted free redemption to man's flesh to give him a new body. The second coming of Jesus Christ as thief in the night will bring awakening to remove deafness by teaching God's truths to defeat evil. As a just judge on a cloud on his third advent, the Lord will remove mankind's dumbness to defeat death. And then man can become worthy of receiving God's rewards of paradise in heaven or heaven on earth.

Creation and Redemption

Believers know that when we die we enter heaven and will spend eternity there with God and the saints who have gone before us. But what actually happens in heaven? What are we going to be doing there? Won't it get boring at some point? According to Scripture, a large part of our experience of heaven will be a continual revealing of God's glory. Not just his glory in the moment, but during all of time. The mysteries of providence, the hidden movements of God throughout history, and the forgotten and unnoted works of even the most obscure of God's people will be unveiled so that we can see how wise, loving, gracious, and powerful our God is. And though we will experience perfection in heaven, we will never be omniscient, which means we will always be learning more about God's glory, inspiring us to return joyful praise and thanksgiving. If your vision of heaven has been limited to clouds and harps and angels, it's time to expand that view with the truth found in this biblically based look at the afterlife.

God's Redemptive Plan

If there is a true, genuine plan coming from an all omnipotent God, the creator of all mankind, and it is specially directed to all people of His creation, and that plan is focused with the intent to reconcile and save humanity back to the Creator...here is that plan. This book explains from a Christian perspective what God's true plan entails and what we have to do to accept this plan. It is a plan that has been around for over two thousand years, but over the ages, the complexity of this plan has been obscured and watered down in its interpretation. There comes a time when this God of ours attempts to touch us spiritually with His plan. It is the responsibility of all mankind to wake up and open up their hearts and minds to what God is trying to tell us.

The Story of Redemption

Will the Real King Please Stand Up? From the very beginning, the Bible tells a story of redemption. God made the first man to rule as king over all He created, only to see Adam's reign end before it had barely begun. God knew all this and that's why He sent the One True King, Jesus, to dwell with us and reclaim what Adam had lost, saving mankind from the penalty of sin. Bestselling author Gloria Furman makes this concept come alive for kids in this colorful and creative book comparing Adam, the archetype, with Christ, "the last Adam." Children will learn that while Adam's sin sentenced all of us to death, Jesus's crucifixion and glorious resurrection restored the promise of eternal life for all those who believe in Him. Kids will be reassured that because Jesus is still on the throne, they can trust him whenever they feel sad or scared. There's nothing that Christ their King can't do for them!

The Nature and Extent of the Redemption of Mankind by Jesus Christ, Stated and Explained

In the distance, a figure, just barely a speck on the horizon, slowly approaches his boyhood home. He hasn't been there in years and is nervous about showing his face. Years ago he wished his father would drop dead, took his share of an inheritance, and lived a shameful life. With all the wealth squandered, his desperate poverty has driven him back to his father's house. At the same time, an elderly man, distinguished and handsomely dressed, sees a far-off silhouette. Could it be? he thinks to himself, not daring to let his hopes up, refusing to believe his son would ever come home. But what is a vague, repressed hope becomes the undeniable truth that his long-lost son draws near. He runs recklessly to meet him. Grace for You, taken from Dr. John MacArthur's best-selling book A Tale of Two Sons, explains the hidden dynamics of Jesus' most well known parable, The Parable of the Prodigal Son. It gives you a brief but powerful look into the homecoming of the son, the unthinkable response of the father, and the often overlooked truth about the older brother who spurns his return. In these pages you will rediscover the depths of god's redemption.
