Most people will never finish a book but YOU DID

First books are messy and THAT'S OK!

All books need editing, so you can fix anything!

Most authors don't publish their first books-NORMAL!

Writing is a skill--you can improve!

Don't compare your first draft to a final product

Every writing process is a valid writing process (if it works for you)

Your competition isn't what you think it is

Good writing matters

Storytelling matters

Hard work & professional pays off

Second book syndrome sucks (you're not crazy)

Finding critique partners is hard (you're not crazy)

You are good enough (or will be)

Writing is a long game

There's room for similar/lots of stories

Write like you're running out of time (but you're not)
