MENNONITE HISTORY 1 Switzerland 1500s - MENNONITE HISTORY 1 Switzerland 1500s by Elma Schemenauer 3,320 views 2 years ago 10 minutes, 12 seconds - Martin Luther started the Protestant Reformation in Germany. Meanwhile in Switzerland,, Ulrich Zwingli went farther than Luther.

A TALK BY ELMA SCHEMENAUER

In Zurich, Switzerland, Ulrich Zwingli preached ideas similar to Luther's.

1500s Watchwords of Reformers Martin Luther & Ulrich Zwingli

Luther believed in the real presence of Christ's body & blood in communion.

Grebel, Blaurock, & Manz said a Christian's true citizenship is in heaven, not in any kingdom of this world.

Grebel, Blaurock, & Manz disagreed. They said infants couldn't be baptized into Christianity. Salvation comes by faith. Infants are too young to have faith.

Grebel, Blaurock, & Manz's ideas spread. People began refusing to have their babies baptized. In January 1525, the Zurich council ordered baptism of all unbaptized babies.

Grebel, Blaurock, Manz, & friends started the RADICAL REFORMATION

First communal Anabaptist colony established in Moravia, part of what's now Czechoslovakia.

Amish vs. Mennonites: What's the difference? - Amish vs. Mennonites: What's the difference? by Amish America 665,184 views 2 years ago 8 minutes, 4 seconds - Amish & Mennonites, are often confused for one another. How are they alike and how are they different? My name is Erik Wesner ...

What's the difference between Amish

There are over 2 million Mennonites around the world - in a variety of churches with the "Mennonite" name

Mennonite churches are found in North America, Africa, Asia, Europe and other regions

There are also different horse-and-buggy Amish groups. But the range of differences are not as great as across Mennonite churches

The Anabaptist movement began in Switzerland in 1525

Central to the movement was a belief in freely-chosen (adult) baptism

This schism leading to the Amish happened in 1693

Mennonites take their name from an earlier Anabaptist leader named Menno Simons

Old Order Mennonites (horse-and-buggy)

Old Order Mennonites & Amish also live near one another in St. Mary's County, MD, and the Wakarusa, IN area

PA German/PA Dutch both refer to the same language

Differences between Amish & old Order Mennonites

There are different groups within the Old Order Mennonites as well, with varying customs, dress, etc.

There are exceptions - men in some old Order Mennonite groups do wear beards

Old Colony Mennonites speak a Low German dialect known as Plautdietsch
