

Legislative Theatre Using Performance To Make Politics

#legislative theatre #political performance #theatre and politics #civic engagement art #performance art for change

Legislative Theatre is an innovative approach that leverages the power of performance to actively engage with and influence political processes and policy-making. By staging simulations, debates, and public forums, this method bridges the gap between artistic expression and civic engagement, fostering deeper understanding and participation in democratic discourse. It transforms passive observation into dynamic interaction, shaping public opinion and advocating for social change.
