Tasmania is a natural paradise.

Australia's beautiful island state is only a short trip south of the mainland.

Hobart, the capital city, combines heritage charm and cultural diversity.

Its Boutique Hotels, restaurants and art galleries are among the best in Australia.

From the charming cities to the serene coast, there's something for everyone on this island of contrasts.

On the east coast, explore the glorious beaches of Freycinet National Park.

You can camp here, or go five-star in one of the world's most luxurious lodges.

Tasmania's pristine World Heritage wilderness will simply take your breath away.

Covering 20 per cent of the island, you can hike Cradle Mountain or cruise the Gordon River.

There are world-class golf courses, award-winning walks and unique wildlife including Tasmanian Devils.
